PRESIDENT LOOKING AFTER BUSINESS

REDS BEING GATHERED IN AT GARY

More Than a Dozen
Radicals Taken
During the Night.

Labor Issues Disapproval of Many Red Plots.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
GARY, Ind., Oct. 15.—More than a dozen men were taken into custody during the night by military intelligence authorities and were questioned today in connection with the investigation into alleged radical activities, including bomb and anti-government plots. It also is said army intelligence agents have in their possession a list of several hundred alleged radicals, among whom a number are believed to be leaders in the radical movement. Military intelligence authorities are said to have obtained clues regarding radical activities here even before Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the central army department declared military control after the situation growing out of the steel strike got beyond state officials.

Ivanoff Sought
Several men, including Anton Gorski, who was said to be under surveillance in connection with explosion of a bomb in the Chicago post office in September 1918, were questioned yesterday and it was said Alexander Ivanoff, believed to be maker of the thirty-six bombs sent from New York to prominent men throughout the country last June, was being sought.

Situation Controlled
That the situation in Gary itself is believed to be under complete control by the federal soldiers here was evidenced by General Wood granting permission for the first outdoor mass meeting today since he assumed command here.

Of the many reports that spread through the veil of secrecy thrown about their activities by the military and civil authorities, one, that a widespread plot against military cantonments had been discovered, was denied officially by Colonel W. S. Mapes, commanding troops here. That drastic measures to combat red plots uncovered, have been planned was not denied however.

Labor Doesn't Approve
Steel workers disavowed the "proclamation" issued by the "communist party of America" calling on the workmen to wrest control from the federal troops and establish a "dictatorship."

The Indiana state building trades council also made a disavowal of the radical activities in behalf of the strike.

Kiwanis Holding Its First State Convention

COLUMBUS, Oct. 15.—Delegates from Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati, Youngstown, Dayton, Akron, Canton, Springfield, Lima, Newark and several other Ohio cities were here today for the first state convention of the Kiwanis club.

Mayor Karb welcomed the delegates at the first meeting this morning. R. J. Birch, governor of the Kiwanis clubs of Ohio is presiding. State officers were elected this afternoon.

TWO SERGEANTS KILLED

DAYTON, O., Oct. 15.—Sergeant Cornelius E. Whitney, 25, of Chardon, N. C., and Sergeant James C. Sweeney, 21, of Berkeley, Calif., in the air service branch of the United States Army, were instantly killed when a motor truck they were driving was struck by a Big Four train, just east of the city. The men were testing the truck preparatory to using it as a pathfinder in a trip across the continent to locate suitable landing fields for airplanes. Both men had been overseas. Whitney has a

GOMPERS SUFFERS COLLAPSE

Noted Labor Leader Has Nervous Breakdown
From Overwork.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor is confined to his home here in a state of nervous exhaustion. His temperature this morning was 101 degrees and his physician has ordered him to remain in bed. Announcement of Mr. Gompers' breakdown was made by his secretary when the national industrial conference convened today. He issued the following statement:

"Mr. Gompers returned home from the industrial conference last evening very greatly exhausted and went immediately to bed. His physician Dr. Henry Parker, was called in to see him. He found Mr. Gompers in a state of nervous exhaustion with a temperature of 101. The doctor said that it would be absolutely necessary for Mr. Gompers to remain in bed."

Mr. Gompers' illness results, labor leaders said, from months of unremitting work at home and abroad in connection with the peace treaty, the international labor congress at Amsterdam and the steel strike.

MUST KEEP UP WORK- PRESIDENT

Wilson Says Labor Conference Must Not Adjourn Now.

Must Find Solution to Present Industrial Troubles.
Before Quitting.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—President Wilson will not sanction adjournment of the national industrial conference here until it has exhausted every possible means of finding a solution of the present industrial situation, White House officials said today.

Despite his illness, the president was understood to have been informed of the tense situation in the conference resulting from the controversy over labor's proposal for arbitration of the steel strike. He was said to feel that this should not endanger the ultimate success of the conference.

Steel Strike Interfers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Arbitration of steel strike appeared today to be blocking the pathway of the national industrial conference.

The members of the labor group, who are demanding that the conference turn its attention to the steel strike, expressed the opinion today that if the steel strike issue were cleared from the pathway of the conference through adoption of some method of arbitration, the remainder of the task of establishing a new relationship between labor and capital would be comparatively easy. On the other hand delegates representing the employers asserted that once the conference takes up the steel strike it will mean an endless chain of mediation proposals.

Having voted down the Chadbourne substitute proposal for mediation of the steel strike, the original proposal of the labor group was before the conference today. Also there was intimations that the public representatives through their chairman, Bernard M. Baruch, would offer a compromise arbitration proposal. Some of the public delegates are known to oppose injection of the steel strike controversy into the conference, so the proposal from the public group must go before the conference lacking unanimous support.

Put Proposal Forward

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Demand that organized labor's proposal for arbitration of the steel strike be made an immediate issue in the national industrial conference was made today by the capital group, through its chairman, Harry A. Wheeler, Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the public group, had proposed that action on the steel resolution be postponed until Thursday.

Postponement of action on the resolution previously had been agreed to by the labor and public groups and the opposition of the employers came as a surprise. Samuel Gompers, chairman of the labor group, who conducted a vigorous fight yesterday against sending the arbitration resolution back to the committee of 15, was detained by illness. He was represented by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor.

On a ruling by Chairman Lane that the Baruch motion was one of procedure on which individual votes could be cast, action on the steel resolution was postponed until next Thursday and the conference recessed until after noon. The public and labor groups cast their individual votes for the Baruch motion, Judge Elbert H. Gary being the only member of the public group to vote with the employers against it.

MUST GO TO WORK

WASHINGTON.—Director General Hines of the railroad administration served notice upon express teamsters, chauffeurs and freight handlers now striking in and about New York City that no negotiations would be held with them by the government until they return to work.

Harbor Strike in New York City is Brought to End

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The strike of longshoremen and other harbor workers has paralyzed port activities here for several days and threatened a serious food shortage was broken today when the ferry workers returned to work and 15,000 of the 80,000 longshoremen resumed their labors. Union leaders predicted that by Friday all of the longshoremen would be at work.

The ferry men at midnight unexpectedly decided to return immediately, accepting with reservation, the government's compromise wage increase offer. Before dawn, all of the ferries were plying the Hudson as usual. The ferry men filed notice, however, that they were not satisfied with flat increase in wages amounting to approximately ten per cent. They had demanded an increase of 25 per cent.

Six longshoremen's locals with a membership of 15,000 have voted to return at once and strike leaders said the remainder of the unions would take action during the next few days. The strikers voted to abide by the wage award of the national commission, pending further negotiations on December first.

The teamster's strike remains in force.

COAL MINERS HEAD AGREES TO MEETING

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, today wired Secretary of Labor Wilson that he would be in Washington at 11 o'clock Friday morning, October 17, for a conference on the bituminous coal mine situation. He announced however that in the meantime the order calling on all union bituminous coal miners in the country to go on strike November 1, would be mailed from the international headquarters in this city to the 4,000 local unions of the organization.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—The order calling all union bituminous coal miners in the country to "cease production of coal at midnight on Friday, October 21, 1919," was issued from the international headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America here at noon today. The order is signed by John L. Lewis, acting president and William Green, secretary-treasurer of the miners.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—Pending the reply of John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, to a request by Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson, that Mr. Lewis attend a conference at the department of labor in Washington, October 16, at which an effort will be made to continue arbitration of the miners' wage dispute, preparations for calling a strike of bituminous miners in the central competitive field were continued today at international headquarters here.

Mr. Lewis received the request from Secretary Wilson last yesterday afternoon on his return from Philadelphia, where efforts of miners and operators to reach an agreement on a wage scale and working conditions last week failed. The request called attention to the provision in the law creating the department of labor, which provides that the head of the department shall constitute a mediator in labor disputes, and stated that Thomas W. Brewster, president of the Coal Operators' Association, also had been requested to attend the conference. Mr. Lewis took the request under consideration and stated that he would reply to the secretary soon.

The preparations for the strike which, under present plans would be called November 1st, include the drawing up and printing of the official order for mailing to the four thousand or more local unions in Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania.

Secretary Wilson telegraphed Mr. Lewis yesterday asking for a conference in Washington, Thursday morning, and it was announced Thomas T. Brewster, president of the Coal Operators' Association also would be present.

YOUNGEST GENERAL IN THE BRITISH ARMY.

Brigadier-General A. Cecil Critchley

The passports of the youngest general in the British army were held up when he arrived recently in this country. He is Brigadier-General A. Cecil Critchley. It had been reported that he was to be the head of a filibustering expedition in Mexico. When he explained that he had an agreement to manage a large Mexican ranch he was permitted to land after Scotland Yard had investigated his story.

REDS LOSE OREL CITY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
LONDON, Oct. 15.—General Denikin's anti-Bolshevik army has captured the important city of Orel, together with thousands of prisoners and enormous quantities of material. It was announced in advices received here today.

Two batteries of Bolshevik artillery fell into General Denikin's hand.

While Orel is 233 miles south of Moscow possession of the city will give General Denikin a secure hold on vast stretches of territory in old Russia, as the place is one of the most important railway centers south of the present Russian capital.

COSSACKS ADVANCING.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—With General Denikin's Cossack army advancing from the south and northwestern Russian forces almost within striking distance of Petrograd, the Soviet government of Russia appears to be facing a crisis.

Bolshevik headquarters at Petrograd were closed last Thursday according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Reval. The northwestern Russian army has apparently crashed through the Bolshevik lines over a wide front. Pskov has been captured and it is believed that the forces under General Yudenich also have taken the town of Luga, about 85 miles southwest of Petrograd. The capture of Yamburg, 75 miles from Petrograd reported on Monday and latest dispatches indicate the line of advance to be nearly 125 miles in length.

On the south the Denikin troops appear to have approached quite near the town of Tula, which is considered the key to Moscow from that side. A dispatch received here says that if Tula falls to the Cossacks the Bolshevik commissaries will flee into Turkestan, taking advantage of a gap between the Denikin and Kolchak forces in the Volga valley.

DIES FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Emma Ash, 60 years of age, wife of L. L. Ash, 836 east High street, died at her home Tuesday night following a several months illness from neuritis. The deceased was born in Allen county, and has lived here practically her entire life. Besides the husband, four grandchildren survive her. Funeral services will be held at the residence Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and burial will be made in Fairmount cemetery.

Uncle Sam Gets Huge Slice of Series Money

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Nearly as much money was paid to the United States in war tax as accrued to the club owners of each of the teams that participated in the recent world's series, it was estimated today. For the eight games $73,239 was paid to the government as war tax, while Charles A. Comiskey, of the Chicago White Sox and Garry Herrmann, of the Cincinnati Reds got approximately $95,000 each. But from that amount, it is stated, it was necessary to deduct the expenses of erecting temporary seats, players' salaries, the cost of transporting the players from one city to the other and their hotel bills, leaving what the club retained just about the same amount as went to the government.

STRIKE IS SHOWING NO CHANGE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
YOUNGSTOWN, Oct. 15.—For the first time since the strike began the Ohio Works of the Carnegie Steel company was operating today, two of its blast furnaces starting up, with indications of resumption in other departments during the day. The Blue Hill Steel company has five open hearth furnaces going this morning and the Sheet and Tube company put on additional sheet mills. At the Sheet and Tube company a large percentage of the skilled labor has returned. Thus far, however, the influx of labor into the mills has been slow, the total number of strikers returning being not over 7,000 or 20 per cent. of the total in this city and East Youngstown. The valley was quiet during the night and few pickets are out this morning.

MORE PITTSBURGH ACTIVITY.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15.—Pittsburgh district steel mills are operating more fully today than at any time since the nationwide strike of steel workers began, according to reports from representatives of the employers. The latest statements from the various companies indicated that hundreds of men are returning to work daily.

Reports from the Carnegie Steel company are to the effect that 39 of its blast furnaces are operating on full time. Clairton Steel company officials say their 14-inch mill operated last Monday, is still running full blast, while 1,800 men are reported to be at work in the plant of the Weirton Steel company at Weirton, W. Va. The plant is operating "100 per cent." according to representatives of the concern. The claims of the companies were met by union leaders today with the statement that the strikers are gaining ground steadily.

No Change At Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Aside from the situation at Gary, Ind., where disclosures of arrests of radicals, revelations of the discovery of alleged anti-government plots by federal authorities yesterday attracted nationwide attention, the industrial conditions in the Chicago steel district today showed no material change in the past 24 hours.

From many of the plants throughout the district came reports of increased production with many striking employees returning to work.

COULD BE SEEN GROWING

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind.—A freak vegetable growth which in two hours developed from the size of a baseball to the proportions of a small watermelon attracted hundreds of visitors to the home of George Motheral. Development was plainly visible, there being alternate movements from side to side. Visitors were unable to classify the strange formation.

WILSON IS BETTER; HAS GOOD NIGHT

Is Keeping in Touch
With Important
National Affairs.

Optimistic Feeling
Regarding Condition of President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—President Wilson had a good night's rest and continues to show improvement, despite a slight headache, said a bulletin today by his physicians.

The bulletin today follows:
"The White House, October 15, 1919, 11:55 a. m.

"The president had a good night's rest, enjoyed his breakfast, and aside from a slight headache, continues to make improvement. The condition which caused the restlessness of Monday night, and about which Dr. Fowler was consulted, gave no trouble during the night.

(SIGNED) "GRAYSON, BUFFIN, STITT."

Keeping in Touch

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—President Wilson, it was learned today, is keeping in general touch with governmental affairs even though Rear Admiral Grayson, his personal physician, is enforcing rigidly his prescription of absolute rest.

The manner in which the president is being informed in a general way of the problems now before the nation was not disclosed but it was presumed it was through Mrs. Wilson and Dr. Grayson.

Through the aid of Dr. H. C. Fowler, a Washington specialist, the swelling of the prostate gland, which interfered with Mr. Wilson's rest Monday night and yesterday, was reduced late yesterday, and the absence of irritation was expected to be reflected soon in the rapidity of his improvement. The president is described as "better" in the issue issued last night by Dr. Grayson.

POLES START OFFENSIVE NEAR RIGA

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 15.—The Poles have begun an offensive against the Germano-Russian forces in the Baltic region, according to a message received here from Riga. They are reported to have captured Kovno, sixty miles northwest of Vilna, near the Courland border.

Savage Fighting

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 15.—Savage fighting is still going on in the city of Riga between Lettish and Lithuanian troops and the Germano-Russian army which entered the western part of the city last week.

Reports reaching here state that shells have fired a portion of the town and that great damage has been done the quays and harbor. Many civilians have been killed during the battle.

Dispatches received here state that all the prisoners taken by the Letts have been Bavarians.

British warships have become involved in the fighting, having been fired upon by the Germano-Russian forces, and an unconfirmed report declares a British force has been landed in or near the city.

Blockade measures are seemingly being rigidly enforced in the Baltic, six German merchant ships having been captured by one British destroyer.

MAY SEND YANKS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—American troops which will form part of the force to occupy the province of Silesia, if such action is ordered by the supreme council in Paris, will sail this week from New York, on transport President Grant, Secretary Baker announced today.

Common Sense in Great Britain

THE application of common sense solved the railroad strike in Great Britain. A satisfactory compromise was effected, and after it had been accepted by both sides they exchanged greetings and expressed satisfaction over the outcome. The prime minister and the labor leaders expressed the hope that the same spirit of conciliation would be used to settle other problems that seem to be threatening the prosperity and happiness of the kingdom. All of which goes to show that great things can be accomplished without radical methods and the application of force and violence.

The public and press were united in condemning the strike which has been called in haste and without cause. There was no justification for crippling the transportation system of the country. The government on the other hand was perhaps too positive in its original stand. Both sides made concessions and the crisis was averted.

A few extremists, who did not represent the solid and sensible British workers, called for a general strike and the overthrow of the government, but the public and the millions of conservative workers decided there was nothing in the situation to warrant this radical step. They effectively checked a bolshevik movement in this direction.

The common sense of the British people insisted that both sides be given a square deal and justice. They felt confident that this could be attained by a discussion of the grievances of both sides, without recourse to violence or the overthrow of the government. Public opinion stood for the principle of justice, attained by orderly methods.

The settlement of this strike proves conclusively that the world is moving forward to a realization of the principle of the Golden Rule and that it is sick and tired of the false doctrines and destructive practices of irresponsible agitators.

An application of common sense is what we need in the solution of our industrial problems. The example of the British people should be emulated here. They were convinced that the railroad men were wrong in precipitating a strike, so they mobilized their resources to overcome the transportation difficulties, succeeding admirably and proving that an intelligent democracy will not surrender to group control.

And on the other hand, they were fairminded enough to see that the men had some grievances that ought to be relieved. Hence, they brought about a combination of interests that was satisfactory to both sides. There is no question at all that the difficulties could have been adjusted without a strike. It was passion that dictated the calling of the strike and it was a mistaken adherence to the preaching of radicals that led some of the strikers to believe that the British people would be foolish enough to overthrow the institutions which their forefathers have established in the many centuries.

We need to acquire more of this spirit in the present hour. Our institutions and our government are precious inheritances, despite all the denunciation which a few radicals have heaped upon them lately. The hour is here when real Americans will demand that these attacks cease.

We have an abiding faith in the flexibility of our institutions to meet conditions as they arise. Their overthrow will not solve the problems nor lead men to a happier plane of existence. Discussion of differences and their settlement in conferences is a good American method that has been tried and found efficacious. It far exceeds the soviet method and the destruction that attends bolshevism.

"Mister"

NO LITTLE significance appears in this excerpt from the press reports of the state meeting of the American Legion in Columbus: "Everyone was 'Mister,' and rank didn't go. A buck private is likely to head the Legion in Ohio.

The constitution of the American Legion repudiates the use of titles by discharged soldiers in its membership. The Legion properly aims to foster and promote actual democracy in the relations of men who partook in the greatest of all wars. To differentiate between these men by emphasizing rank would be a plain subversion of democracy and an encouragement to snobocracy.

These facts are worth the attention of those persons who are so zealously advocating service and compulsory military training laws on one pretext or another. Neither universal service nor compulsory military training can be achieved and continued in any practical manner without military discipline. And military discipline cannot be achieved and continued without sooner or later developing a military caste and snobocracy.

This is a country where everybody should remain "Mister" and where the buck private has the same standing as the man in gold braid. It cannot so remain if the wedge of militarism is permitted to enter in the guise either of universal service or compulsory military training.

GOOD EVENING—Perhaps there is not a married woman anywhere who does not believe that the reason her husband is not the boss of the entire place where he works is that he is too modest to assert himself—like he is at home.

We can go right through a world's series and never make a bet although we are able to state positively to all the folks around the office, after each game, that we know who would win, but we'd risk betting that Lenin isn't dead any more than a rabbit.

We see that the War Department is going to sell a lot of second-hand stills at public auction, but just for the moment we are bothered about what the Department expects the purchasers to do with 'em.

Here's a man openly coming out with the theory that a day's work ought to be equal to a day's pay, but he's running an awful chance of getting hit with a Bolsheviki brick.

Many a man thinks he hears Opportunity knocking at his door, when it is merely somebody dangling a gold brick against the door.

It takes just such a man as this Z. Foster to sit up and tell a committee how to prevent disorders in this country.

HAPPY THOUGHT: The reason that more people go to a lawyer for advice than to anybody else, is that lawyers charge for advice.

WHY YOU ARE ABLE TO LIVE IN THE MIDST OF DISEASE

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B. M. A., M. D. (John Hopkins University)

Itching is one of the dozen and more sensations included under the sense of touch. Tickling and prickling tingling and burning, creepy and numb feelings are all first cousins to the itch.

Itching is the anatomical flash, which signals your brain that something is doing "at a particular place."

The widely held notion that itching is a sign of healing is not correct. When your flesh itches it is, one though, a sign of trouble, not of returning health.

The impulse to scratch is, according to Huxley, the muscular discharge caused by the brain at some intricate located at the itching point. Briefly then, the tiny nerve fibers, interwoven in your dermal apparatus become irritated and incited by some interloper such as a bacillus, the egg of a little mite, the itch bug, a hair, or some other parasite.

At once as the outposts and lookers of your body dispatch an "itch" to the brain, the brain sets in motion the nearest muscle—usually your hand or fingers—to action and then you scratch.

Scratching and picking are dangerous, even deadly habits sometimes, not because nature has made a mistake, but for the two reasons that man has become codded and susceptible to microbes, and even when cleanest has his finger-nails full of germs.

When a dog lifts his hind paw and scratches his ear like a vibrating machine there is little or no injury to fear. When you scratch your nose, your eye or your flesh because it "itches" blood poisoning may result.

Why this difference? Not because nature has been kinder to the dog, but because dogs have become resistant to malicious microbes, and man living in ease and luxury has become susceptible to them.

When you with the cleanest, daintiest, most polished hand scratch an itch, your manicured fingers are still infected with wicked microbes. If you literally vaccinate into yourself. The mere accident that you do not always fall ill is due to the fact that the skin is a fine fighting machine. It conquers a majority of bacteria.

One way to remove itching, be it attributable to hives or what not, is to apply carbolated petroleum with glycerine and benzoin to the flesh. Then seek the source of the trouble, which must be removed as quickly as possible.

Short Stories of the Buckeye State

NORWALK ACADEMY

An early educational institution of northern Ohio, as well known among the pioneers of that part of the state as Yale or Harvard to New England people, was the Norwalk Academy. It reached its highest popularity in the early fifties. Horace Greeley said of the Western Reserve that its people were the most intelligent in the world, and the residents of the Firelands—the extreme western-end of the Reserve—regarded themselves as the most intelligent of the section so complimented.

The patronage of the academy through a long series of years gave the town a decidedly academic air—so many teachers came to make their residence at the place, and so many families of the well-to-do with children to educate, to locate there to secure the advantages of the Academy. Men prominent later in every form of activity secured their early education at Norwalk and eighty years ago three men who won national fame were at the same time students as boys there. These were Rutherford B. Hayes, president of the United States; Charles Foster, Governor of Ohio and secretary of the treasury in the cabinet of President Benjamin Harrison, and Brigadier General James B. McPherson, graduate of West Point and the highest ranking officer to make the supreme sacrifice in the union army in the Civil War.

Besides these there were others who became congressmen and professional men of high standing. The Academy drew from all classes but of course chiefly from northern Ohio, and especially the Reserve. There was a dormitory provided where boys could secure a room for a dollar or two a term and do their own cooking except as to bread. They bought that from the town bakery.

It is said by one who was there that by this method a boy could actually get along on as little as 45 cents a week, when the institution was in its prime, but the intimation is made that they helped out a little by small farming expeditions to which the neighboring farmers did not seriously object—apples and other farm fruits being the main objects. But the sons of the more wealthy families could get the best rooms in town for $1.50 each a week.

OUR BED-TIME STORY

FOR THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT POLICE

We had to stop yesterday's story just as Como told about the farmer killing the silk worm in his cocoon by putting the cocoon in a very hot place. So, now we'll hear what happens after that.

"When the farmer is ready to get the silk from the cocoon he soaks the little bundles in hot water," said Como. "When they are thoroughly soaked they are taken out. Workmen find the ends of the fine silk thread and unwind it onto spools—or reels. Later this fine thread is twisted into heavier thread and it is this thread that is woven into silk cloth at great factories. Some of the silk thread is shipped to France to big factories there. There is a great silk mill at Como, in our country. I guess mother and father must have named me after that city."

"It's still hard to believe that little worms like the farmer raises here make such a wonderful thing as silk," said Jack. After Como had taken them all over the farm and shown them the worms being hatched, feeding, spinning their cocoons, the cocoons being unwound and new silk moths coming out to lay more eggs.

"If more folk could see the silk worms at work and other wonderful things nature produces they would realize more than they do what a great thing it is just to live," said Como to Captain Brave and Ladydear as the children and their friends were flying back to Como's house again.

"You seemed to have obtained a very good education despite the fact that your father and mother aren't what we would call well-to-do," said Captain Brave.

"It wasn't hard," said Como, laughing. "I worked at home each year during the summer and until the wine had been made and then went to Rome and found work in the store there. I would work in the store early in the morning and after college hours and learn my lessons after I was through at the store. I arranged with the man who owned the store to stay at his home. He let me sleep and eat there as part of my pay, you see, and then gave me a little money besides. I had to make that do for books and other things I needed at school."

"When you little folks get back to Make Believe town and feel a bit angry when the teacher gives you hard lessons you want to think of Como and how he worked to go to school," said Ladydear to the children when the Italian boy had finished his story.

"Oh, I didn't mind it," said Como, laughing. "It was fun studying. Every day I learned many new things. Maybe they won't help me here on the farm or in any particular kind of work, but what I have learned has taught me to think and study everything I do so that I can do it better next time."

Jack and Jane didn't say anything just then, but both of them decided that looking at school the way Como did would make it seem much more pleasant.

INITIAL MEETING ON CAMPAIGN HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

Republicans As Well As Democrats Attend Burkhardt Rally.

CLEAN SWEEP COMING

Burkhardt Promises to Clean Out City Hall
Complete.

The initial Burkhardt booster meeting at Mowery's Bellefontaine Avenue, Tuesday night was full of pep and ginger. A noteworthy fact that is an index of the city wide sentiment was the attendance of a good percentage of republicans. And further they were not only hearers but participants in the spirited talks and addresses.

The city administration heads the admission that more money had been spent in the last four years than in the previous 20 caused a knowing smile, as well as the veiled regret that the present quartet machine would not survive the spending of the million dollar sewer project as outlined in the Gazette was recited to the amusement of all.

When it is recalled that all of the bond issues went down to defeat in August due to the public lack of confidence in the present city hall group, there is no wonder that gloom pervaded the G. O. P. meeting as the hand writing is on the wall.

Broom to be Used Burkhardt's promise of a cleanup for the city hall and his announcement plan to bring about elimination of railroad crossing grades has found a popular response in all directions.

Other of the candidates who will follow Burkhardt's lead at the November primary, were present and joined in the discussions with a sim.

Tonight there will be three meetings in the east end and it is planned to have 15 at various places, next week. A rousing big meeting of workers from all precincts will be held at Democrat Headquarters in Morris Arcade at 7:30 p. m. Thursday night.

WANT A LABOR PARTY

Do Clevelanders, But Conservatives Oppose Entering Politics.

ZANESVILLE, O., Oct. 15.—Reports of committees and action on the many resolutions introduced yesterday were scheduled to occupy the greater part of today's session of the Ohio State Federation of Labor in convention here.

It was indicated that there will be a close contest on the resolution opposing the classification of property amendment to the state constitution. It was believed by many delegates that the majority of the resolutions proposing industrial reforms will be adopted by the convention.

30 Resolutions Introduced.
The scope of the industrial reforms sought by Ohio labor was defined in some 30 resolutions introduced. Among the more important suggestions for confirmation by the convention were the following:

For all unions in the United States to declare in favor of yearly labor contracts; for the inspection of public kitchens and eating places, providing for the inspection of bakeshops and abolishing Sunday work in bakeshops.

Against the system of universal military training, that the policy of the American Federation of Labor in favor of the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer be adopted and that the federation urge the defeat of the ratification of the federal prohibition amendment and of the Crabbe bill, protest against the campaign to prohibit the use of tobacco, approval of old age, accident and sickness insurance, posting of machinists shop rules in a conspicuous place in all shops.

Creation of local labor boards under the jurisdiction of the state industrial commission; to petition congress to change laws detrimental to railways employees.

To place the Willys-Overland plant at Toledo on the unfair list, recommendation opposing the classification of property amendment to the state constitution; increase in the dues of local unions.

Protest against one man street car service and to require a competent motorman and conductor on each car; favoring eight hour day for firemen and policemen; granting of bonuses to soldiers and sailors; opposing the bonuses to soldiers and sailors.

Opposing the action of common pleas judges in Cuyahoga county in denying organized labor free speech;
objecting to the Sims and Cummins

For the traveler, or those contemplating a trip, nothing is nicer, and nothing comes in as handy as a good substantial, easily accessible wardrobe trunk. The Hartman, or the Oshkosh are either one all the traveler could desire—a full and complete line now on display for the winter and holiday trade.

Curtain utes suitable for any room in the house. Come in many different patterns and weaves—prices range from 50c per yard up.

Georgette Waists at $5.75 are selling rapidly. You must see these attractive blouses in all of the season's colors to know what a real value we are offering in the waist section—Extra value in Crepe de Chine.

Women's Silk Hosiery—fashioned leg and foot, re-inforced heel and toe, good weight—Beaver, Brown, Bronze, Cordovan, Seal, Grey, Taupe, Navy and White—priced special at $1.35 per pair—These hose make one of our exceptional bargains and are not often offered at this price.

A complete stock of yarns in all shades, recently received; also full knitting equipment in the Art Dept.

Petticoats of all SILK JERSEY, Silk Jersey tops with satin flounces, and all satin petticoats in navy, emerald, taupe, plum, sand, wisteria, black, old rose and medium grey—priced at $6.50 to $14.00—pleated and tailored flounces. Extra sizes, same range of colors, $8.50 to $14.00.

Straight line effects prevail this season on account of the style of the dresses. Soft taffetas, satin and silk jerseys are the desirable cloths for petticoats as they cling close to the body and do not extend the outer garments—The stock of petticoats shown for fall is most complete and attractive.

A complete line of umbrellas in very attractive shades—beautiful handles in many shapes and sizes—especially attractive for holiday use. Silk umbrellas at $5 to $15. We advise an early selection as stocks are limited.

Underwear for men, women, boys and girls—underwear of quality, the kind you will love to wear, is now being shown in the underwear section. Underwear of all kinds for all sizes, young and old—at attractive prices.

Especially beautiful are the newer suits we are showing in the Cloak and Suit section—some fur trimmed elaborately, others plain—all marvelous. The suits should be seen in their entirety to be appreciated and this is the time to buy, during October, the suit month, when stocks are at their best—Suits from $45.00 to $150.00.

Everything for the baby carried in the "Layette" room, in the Children's department—everything you can think of to make the little one comfortable and cozy. Many, many things to make the mother happy in having.

We urge early purchasing to insure you not being disappointed in getting what you have had your heart set on—

THE REAL HOME

"It's a wonderful place, Bern. There's a school in it, and a library and a gym and a theater and everything. There's room for us. They'll welcome us. We'll find our niche there."

"And by and by, dear, when the burden of making a living has lightened a little—remember, indeed, you're to be president of your tobacco company—we shall have time to think, and to raise others to think, and to live, and to show Morris and Sarah Rafetzky and about a dozen more like them how to climb up the stairs."

"You know, I've had a meddling idea for months that when you were very very rich, so that you were at most disgusting, we'd start a settlement house of our own, one much more like the one I went to when I was a poor, skimp factory girl."

"But now I've changed my mind. We don't do that. We'll add our weight to something already well and wisely started. We'll work and study, and when we've learned more, and the cause has soaked in and deep, and we've learned how to do soapbox speeches and things, we'll make the freeing of human beings OUR work, Bern."

"And maybe sometime I'll have a vote, and you and I and Sarah and Morris Rafetzky, and all the children that are old enough to vote, will troop off together and cast our proud and powerful ballots for men who will help toward the co-operative commonwealth and brotherhood of democracy. And you can run for office, Bern! And be an alderman or something that won't take us away from New York. Are you with me, Bernie? Or do I sound too much like a soapbox orator?"

Bernard's answer was wordless. He rather liked soapbox orators.

A short time after this, on the 7th of November or to be exact, at 7:30 in the morning, Morris Rafetzky pounded on the Carrolls' door and joked his newspaper wily at Bernie.

"Look at it!" he cried, his thin face flushed with excitement, his hair all wild, "the women have the vote—the women have the vote! And the Party polled—my God look at the figures here for New York, almost a hundred thousand, including—"

He broke off because Annie had seized his paper and was staring at the headlines concerning the suffrage vote.

ing over and over until Bernie grabbed for his turn at the paper, and they all talked and laughed and looked and tramped up and down and jumped the kids about and looked some more and talked and shook hands and couldn't believe it, but did, anyhow—and rejoiced.

All that day the feeling kept growing in Anne's heart that she had found herself, that she had now both the knowledge of what she wanted to do, and the power to do it. And perhaps that is the best feeling of which the human heart is capable.

As in all great joys, she thought of her father and his extinguishable hope and belief in the ultimate good. Through happy tears she looked out over the dreary vacant lot, dreary now no longer, for its very can and cartwheels gleaming in the sun seemed only to picture the debris of her old debts and tears that were going to be cleaned away and the space built upon, just as some day that lot would be built upon. Maybe clean, wholesome homes for workers would be there, with plots for children to play in, kept pure with air and sunshine.

Now at least she had in her hand the weapon to help win it. And in her brain the consciousness that should awaken the Sarah Rafetzky and all her drowsing sisterhood.

Life had been sad. But now it was good. Her father's words came back: "Keep your own promises. Name them at least you can expect promises to be kept to you!"

Life was keeping its promise after all.

Bernie never was president of his tobacco company. But he never wanted to be. He got well to the point where "the burden of making a living was lightened," and there was time for love and play and companionship with his mate and his children and "Aunt Maggie," who had the sunniest room in their decent little flat.

Some one has said that the success element in marriage is having a mutual interest outside of marriage. The Carrolls had. And it was focused in the "House."

PEACE TIME NEEDS.

Two hundred and fifty packing cases filled with hospital supplies are to be sent out this week to hospitals in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky from the Red Cross warehouse at the Lake Division headquarters, 2167 Euclid Ave.

These cases contain 2,000,000 articles, pneumonia jackets, absorbent pads, gauze compresses, bandages, night gowns, pajamas and baby clothes. These have been turned in by Red Cross chapters in the Lake Division.

Women who met each week during the war to make surgical dressings are now meeting at Red Cross warehouse to inspect garments and pack cases. This work is part of the co-operation of the American Red Cross with the American Hospital Association. At the request of the hospital association the Red Cross is distributing supplies intended for war purposes among needy hospitals in the United States.

At the Lake Division Red Cross warehouse there are sufficient supplies to fill 2,000 more cases. These will be distributed as orders are received from the American Hospital Association. It is one way the Red Cross is adjusting its war-time organization to peacetime needs.

LVI.—ALICE IS MARRIED

Alice and Martin were married at 5 o'clock of a golden August afternoon in the old-fashioned garden of the Lloyd residence. The ceremony, solemnized before the trusting stone as Alice wished, was simple but impressive with its background of strong young faces above olive drab uniforms, and the military selections with which the strident orchestra concealed in the shrubbery, the brief marriage rites.

A number of Martin's brother students at the training camp had come in on furlough and the air was redolent youth and happiness to the temporary exclusion of the stern war god.

Alice was radiant in satin and tulle, her happiness enveloping her like a halo. And Martin wore a look of exaltation that sobered me whenever I caught his glance.

I was enjoying one of the mad moods that were so frequently in those days. I knew that the filmy pale green gown I wore with its girle of orchid and silver and the drooping hat of silver tulle and orchid were vastly becoming. I had the flattering assurance that two pairs of eyes, Dick Frazier's and Berry Williams were watching me, with unwilling fascination, Bob Calloway, and Paul with open pride of possession.

Admiration is a woman's, most dangerous intoxicant. Trusting in its security and immunity, she will go to any lengths of daring. That is the eternal secret of beauty in distress. It is the answer to the plain woman's invariable immunity from violence and notoriety. Beauty never troubles to watch her step through the pitfalls of life, while her homely sister has nothing else to do.

I think I shall never forget that August afternoon when the shadows lay, long and golden, across the garden reaching the quiet pool where the stately swan floated undisturbed by the little company of intruders. The mellow voice of the clergyman, the faint limpid notes of the harp that whispered, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and the far-away hum of an airplane that crossed the blue sky overhead, stand out like the lights of a peaceful harbor to a ship breasting the breakers ahead.

After the wedding supper, and the departure by motor of the bride and bridegroom, there was dancing in the drawing room until nearly midnight for the student officers from the camp and other young people who had come in for the informal reception.

I flirted with one of the young officers until Berry Williams was in sulks, then I beckoned him to me and led him out into the garden.

"You're not a bit of a pal, Berry," I said plaintively, "You've been so unkind all evening."

"Unkind," he exploded, "I'd like to know how in the deuce I had a chance to be 'unkind,' or anything else for that matter."

"Don't be so violent," I gasped in feigned dismay, "You frighten me."

An imp of mischief urged me to trifle with this diverting youth.

"I'm sorry, Nell," he answered instantly contrite, "I guess you got my goat for a minute. But you do put a fellow over the jumps so."

"Then you do like me the least little bit," I quipped pointing. It was old stuff, but youth is not discriminating.

"Like you!" he echoed.

Spurred by the spirit of daring I leaned toward him and lifted my lips.

"Kiss me," I commanded softly.

By the dim light of a Chinese lantern, I saw the swift color spring to his face, but he drew back perceptibly.

"I can't, Nell. I—you—your husband—" he stammered miserably, and left me.

I stood looking after him, stunned with astonishment. For the first time in my life I had lost a trick.

"Little fool," I whispered to myself, but I could not have told just whom I meant.

In the shelter of a flourishing shrub, I came upon Elizabeth Carlton and George Wharton sharing a kiss.

"If I asked you to kiss me George, what would you do?" I greeted them.

George Wharton sprang up and presented a smiling mouth pursed for a kiss.

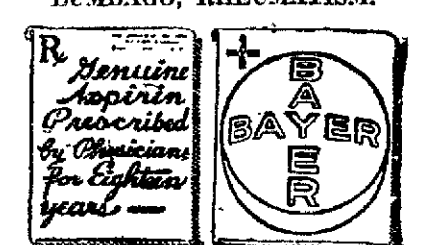

"No, no," I protested, "You act with too military precision I want ardor."

As if in answer to my words, Captain Frazier stepped out of the shrubbery.

DICKENS

No biographical sketch about Charles Dickens neglects his interest in acting would be complete. He never saw a play that he did not envy one of the players. Instead, he almost became an actor instead of a novelist. Before he began reporting, he applied for a position at Covent Garden, and only an illness, a very fortunate illness, prevented his following up this ambition.

His love for amateur theatricals gave this passion full play. He played Boadicea, the braggart, so successfully in Ben Johnson's "Every Man in His Humour" that Leigh Hunt thought him superior to professional actors. The drama pleased so many that it was repeated, under Dickens' direction, in the largest theatres in London, Manchester, Liverpool and other large cities.

In appearance Dickens impressed his friends as being under rather than over the average height and weight. His eyes were the first of his features to attract attention. They were bright and piercing. Like the eyes of birds in their darting animation. They gave to his face a quality of steel-like hardness that Mrs. Carlyle and others noticed.

Most English men of his time preferred being correct to being themselves. They strove to look like everyone else. Dickens had in him little of this. He wore velvet coats and waistcoats that were, as Chesterton remarks, "like incredible sunsets." He liked, too, "large hats of an unnecessary and startling whiteness." He wore dressing-gowns in violent colors. If he exaggerated his likes and dislikes, it was because he felt them so strongly.

LITTLE DORRIT

By CHARLES DICKENS

(Condensation by Charles E. L. Wingate)

"Affery, what girl was that in my mother's room last night?"

"Oh, she? Little Dorrit? She's nothing; she's a whim of hers—"

And thus Mrs. Plinwinch, wife of the crafty, crab-like walking footman of the household, introduced to Arthur Clennam the name of the poor little seamstress of the paralytic Mrs. Clennam.

He had noted her pale transparent face, quick in expression though not beautiful in feature, excepting for its soft hazel eyes. A delicately bent head, a tiny form, a shabby dress—it must needs have been very shabby to look at all so, being so neat—were Little Dorrit as she sat at work.

A strange presentiment came into Arthur's mind that, in some way, this gentle maiden was connected with his history.

For twenty years young Clennam had lived in China with his father, only to return now, puzzled over a mysterious watch which that father, in the very last moments of his life, had given to his son, murmuring faintly and indistinctly at the time "Your mother." Naturally Arthur had assumed that it was intended for Mrs. Clennam, whom he and the world supposed to be his mother.

Inside the watch-casing was an old silk paper with the initials D N F worked into it in beads. It was a message—but the young man could not fathom it and the old woman would not enlighten him. Was Little Dorrit, to whom the stony Mrs. Clennam paid such strange, unusual kindness, connected with the mystery?

They grew to see more of each other—the girl and the young man

Arthur himself was thrown into prison—the same poor debtor's prison that had, for so long, been the home of Little Dorrit.

The days dragged wearily on. At last Arthur, despondent and crushed, haggard from brooding and stricken with fever, one day saw, as in a vision, kneeling before him the figure of dear Little Dorrit. She had hastened to make happier the lot of the man who had helped her family in the same gloomy surroundings and whom she loved. She nursed him in his sickness. She offered him all her money to help him overcome his distress. And then, as he refused the money, he realized for the first time, that she loved him—and that he, too, loved her.

A feeling of peace comes over his mind. The clouds began to break.

And strange to say it is a rascally adventurer, Rigaud, a murderous jail-bird with drooping nose and ascending mustache, who opens the rift still further for the sunshine. He has discovered Mrs. Clennam's secret, having stolen the strong-box that Plinwinch had smuggled into Holland and in which lay a page of the will of Arthur's uncle, a page which Mrs. Clennam had concealed for years.

Rigaud visits the strange old lady. Leaning over the sofa, poised on two legs of his chair and his left elbow, coarse, insolent, rapacious, cruel, he reveals to her his knowledge.

Then, torn by the explosion of her passion, the old lady vehemently tells her own story.

She had learned, after Mr. Clennam's marriage to her (a marriage commanded by his overbearing uncle), that her husband had loved and gone through a sort of ceremony with a beautiful young singer whom Frederick Dorrit, a kind-hearted musician (the uncle of Little Dorrit), was befriending and giving an education. She had obtained the first clue from those initials in her husband's watch which she found years ago, signifying "Do Not Forget." She accused both her husband and the woman who put the initials there.

"I said to her," declared Mrs. Clennam, "You have a child; I have none. You love that child. Give him to me and swear never again to see his father. Then I will support you and not expose your shame. And I will reclaim the otherwise lost boy."

Thus it had been that Arthur came into the Clennam home.

At this point in her narrative Rigaud contemptuously interrupted. "Come straight to the stolen money!" he commanded.

"Wretch!" she responded, "Know then that I suppressed a part of the will of my husband's uncle—the part in which that uncle had revealed the maternity of Arthur and had left, as a repentant compensation, a legacy to Arthur's mother and to the niece of the man who had befriended her—but I found that niece of Frederick Dorrit and what I did for her was better for her far than the money."

Instantly Rigaud, seeking to blackmail the old lady, declared he had deposited with the niece, Little Amy Dorrit, then at the prison with Arthur, a packet containing the suppressed section of the will with instructions to open it at a certain hour unless reclaimed by him. What would Mrs. Clennam pay him to reclaim it?

To the astonishment of all, the paralytic old lady rises to her feet and rushes from the house to the prison; seeks Little Dorrit; calls for the packet, and then bids Amy read it, at the same time begging her to forgive the past.

"I forgive you freely," cries the generous girl.

"God bless you!" was the fervent and broken suspense.

And then came the good news that Arthur's firm had re-established itself and that he would be able now to leave the debtor's prison.

So they were married—but not before Little Dorrit had handed to Arthur a folded bit of legal paper asking him not to open it but to burn it in her presence.

"It is a charm?" he asked, smilingly. "And does the charm want any words to be said?" he added, as he held the paper over the flames.

"You can say (if you don't mind) 'I love you!'" answered Little Dorrit.

So he said it and the paper burned away.

With it died the secret of Arthur's birth, never to be known to him; with it also, Little Dorrit had voluntarily destroyed the evidence of her own legacy.

And they were married with the sun shining on them through the painted figure of Our Saviour on the window.

Then they went quietly down into the roaring streets, inseparable and blessed; and, as they passed along the sunshine and shade, the noisy and the eager and the arrogant and the forward and the vain fretted, and chafed, and made their usual uproar.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 25c.

NO CRYING OVER SPILLED MILK

"That it's an ill wind that blows no one good was illustrated in a very substantial way the other day," said a West Side resident, who has a rather soft spot in his heart for homeless cats.

"Walking up Main street one day, a little black kitten came toward me trying to make me understand that it was pretty empty. I looked around in a helpless sort of way and spied a broken bottle of milk lying on the pavement that someone had spilled accidentally. Taking up a piece of the broken bottle in which was left enough of the milk to make a fair sized meal for the kitten, I set it down in front of her and taking a last satisfied look was pleasantly assured that she at least was not 'crying over spilled milk.'"

BETTY FAIRFAX'S READY ADVICE

Chats With the Love-Lorn Answers to Missives

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am going to attend a wedding in the morning and also the breakfast. Which would be more suitable, a suit or a dress?

Mrs. X. Y. Z.
Ans.—A silk dress would be more suitable than the suit.

Dear Miss Fairfax: Will you please advise me if a wedding invitation to the church, but not to the breakfast, requires a present?

Thank You.
Ans.—No, not if you do not wish to send one.

Dear Miss Fairfax—We are planning to give a Japanese tea. Will you kindly tell us what to serve and how to serve it?

Very Anxious.
Answer—Have the girls who are to serve wear Japanese kimono and to arrange their hair high in Japanese style with fans and large pins as decorations. Serve tea from a Japanese tea pot in tiny cups and also marquerites. Make a boiled icing spread upon crackers of any variety, either salted or sweet. Brown in a moderate oven and serve cold. This meringue may have nuts, raisins, figs or jam made added; also a spoonful of marmalade may be put on the cracker first and covered with meringue.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have devised a new mechanical tool, but to complete it, I must employ the help of some one else and explain to him my idea. I am afraid that this man, once in possession of my plan may use it for himself, before I could apply for a patent. Is there any way of getting the patent before the model is made? Can you tell me approximately how much the patent right will cost and to whom I apply?

Fume.
Ans.—Application for patent must be made to the Commissioner of Patents, Washington, D. C. He recommends that the service of a competent registered patent attorney be secured, as the value of the patent depends largely upon the skillful preparations of the specifications of claims. However you may send to the commissioner for a copy of the rules or practice containing form and instructions and I would prefer that you read these rules for yourself. Fees must be paid in advance.

6. For total disability resulting from any of the losses above mentioned, $90 a month.

Provides for Widow

7. To the widow of any person who served in the army, navy or marine corps for 90 days or more, or regardless of the length of service if such person was discharged for disability incurred in the service, $50 a month, provided the widow was married to the soldier, sailor or marine prior to June 27, 1916. This section applies to all former widows of persons who served for 90 days or more in the army, navy or marine corps during the Civil war who it can be shown that such widows remarried either once or more than once after the death of the soldier, sailor or marine, provided it is shown that the subsequent or successive marriage or marriages have or have been dissolved either by death of the husband or husbands or by divorce without fault on the part of the wife.

There is further provision that any widow mentioned in this section shall also be paid $6 a month for each child of the officer or enlisted man under 16 years of age and in case of death or remarriage of the widow having a child or children under these circumstances under the age of 16 years the pension shall be paid to the child or children under the age of 16 years.

Nurses are Mentioned

All army nurses of the Civil war and all dependent parents of any officer or enlisted man who served in the war whose names are now on the pension roll or who are now entitled to pension under any existing law are to receive $30 a month.

According to the pension office the legislation would affect 571,504 persons who are now on the pension rolls, classified as follows: Veterans of Civil war who are alive, 271,391; widows of pensioners, 293,214; dependent parents of Union soldiers, 266; Civil war nurses 129; minor children, 6,836. The house committee says it goes without saying that the bill, if enacted into law, will cost the government a large sum of money, but the committee asserts that in comparison with some other government expenses the amount seems almost negligible. The best estimate the committee has been able to obtain is that the new schedule would cost for the first year of its operation around $65,000,000, but this estimate, it is pointed out, is based on the number on the pension roll on the 30th of last June. That number is, of course, being reduced by deaths by several thousand every month.

SUICIDES AT GRAVE OF HER MOTHER

FINDLAY, Oct. 15.—Mrs. E. W. Mueller, wife of a Chicago physician committed suicide near her mother's grave in the cemetery at McComb by shooting herself through her heart.

She arrived at McComb at 3:45 o'clock in the morning from Chicago, went to the home of her father, John R. Shoop, and wrote a note indicating where her body would be found and then proceeded to the cemetery and killed herself. The note was found when the family arose at six o'clock. Relatives could ascribe no motive for the deed.

She lived with her husband at Chillicothe, while he served in the medical corps during the war, at Camp Sherman. She was an actress before her marriage.

More Than Enough Is Too Much. To maintain health a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the bodily waste and provide energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach trouble, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion revise your diet, eat sparingly especially of meats, masticate your food thoroughly. Let reason, not appetite control also take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper and you will soon be feeling all right again. m-w-f

Drinking a Glass of Hot Water is a Splendid Habit

Cleanse and Sweeten the System Each Morning and Wash Away Poisonous, Stagnant Matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before eating more food.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a fine appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is enough to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism an enthusiast on internal sanitation.

AMUSEMENT

HE MADE "THE MIRACLE"

George Loane Tucker, producer and director of "The Miracle Man," the photoplay sensation of the year at the Faurot, is a man whose genius is stamped upon every scene of this splendid production. He was born and reared in Chicago and after leaving the University of Chicago entered the service of a Western railroad company. A friend suggested the stage and he joined a road show. The growth of motion pictures in public fancy attracted him and he decided to do something big, even if it bankrupted him. So the first American million-dollar picture "Traffic in Souls," having a powerful psychological appeal, was produced. He then went to London, where he affiliated himself with great authors such as Hall Caine and Anthony Hope, and brought out "Rupert of Hentzau," "The Christian," "The Prisoner of Zenda," "The Manxman" and other screen masterpieces. On his return to this country, he produced "The Cinderella Man," one of the biggest hits of the 1917-18 season, and his first production under his own management was "Virtuous Wives," which proved an enormous success. Then he produced "The Miracle Man," by far his biggest presentation, and acclaimed by press and public as one of the very best pictures ever presented.

RIALTO THEATRE.

Insisting in his foreful manner that it was "the kind of a story our people ought to read," the late ex-President Theodore Roosevelt took up cudgels in behalf of Major Rupert Hughes' story, "The Unpardonable Sin," when it was first published some months ago, and immediately incurred the displeasure of officials of the New York Public Library. The motion picture version of the story, produced by Harry Garson, starring Miss Blanche Sweet, under the personal direction of Marshall Neilan, is the attraction at the Rialto theatre, beginning Monday.

It is expected that members of these organizations from Lima and other nearby towns will attend. Rev. C. B. ARGONNE GRAVES HAVE BEEN WELL LOOKED AFTER COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15.—Every one of the 21,000 American soldiers who lie in the Argonne cemetery at Romagne-sous-Montfaucon, France, has received as good a burial as was possible, according to Prof. Philip H. Elwood, of Ohio State University, who has just returned here after having helped supervise the engineering and landscape gardening at the huge cemetery. Elwood was an artillery captain.

Each body was wrapped in cloth, put in a new wooden coffin and buried five and one half feet deep, Captain Elwood said. All but 200 of the bodies have been absolutely identified, he added, and the greater part of the 200 would have been probably correctly identified had the graves registration service cared to accept evidence found on the bodies.

The graves are laid out in rows of 28 and two rows form a plot. Approximately 50 acres of land were needed for the cemetery, Captain Elwood stated, but the American government has taken over a total of 175 acres. The additional ground was purchased to insure the beauty and setting of the cemetery against future building activities and to provide room eventually for an American park. Plans already have been drawn for the construction of buildings and many trees and much shrubbery have been planted.

Practically every foot of the ground was pock-marked with shell holes from long fighting. The site was directly in the path of the American artillery in the Argonne drive. Grading and leveling of the entire area was necessary before any of the graves could be dug.

Flowers were brought all the way from Luxembourg for planting, since none were available close at hand. At the entrance to the cemetery is a huge golden star made of growing purple and yellow pansies. German prisoners of war were utilized in the work of building the cemetery.

H. C. OF L. WILL FALL, SAYS PALMER

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—Living costs will fall soon, Attorney General Palmer predicted today in an interview.

"Prices have dropped in all parts of the country," he said. "I am surprised that the same condition does not prevail here. But it will come."

"Throughout the United States the cost of foods has fallen almost twenty-five per cent. Beef on the hoof has gone down so low in some localities that the producers are protesting."

Missions Occupy Disciples Church Sessions Today

CINCINNATI, O., 15.—Foreign missions occupied the attention of delegates to the annual convention of the Disciples of Christ today. Rev. Archibald McLellan, presiding. Speakers include Rev. W. F. Wotenberger, Springfield, Ohio; Rev. Charles L. Medbury, Des Moines, Iowa; Fletcher S. Brockman, representing the international committee of the Young Men's Christian Association in China; Judge Charles S. Lobinger, Shanghai, China, and Rev. Raphael S. Miller, Kansas City, Mo.

Aside from the regular convention, members of the board of education of the Disciples of Christ will meet to discuss the Inter-church World Movement, and the plan to raise a billion dollars for the benefit of all missionary, benevolent and education agencies of Protestant churches of America and its territories. A survey is being made under the Inter-church World Movement to determine what is necessary along these lines.

The board of education is composed of executive heads of educational institutions of the church, and employs secretaries for the promotion of general educational interests for all schools involved. Standardization of education in all schools controlled by the church is the aim of the board.

PUSHES MILK PRICES UP
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15.—Prohibition, which has resulted in increased drinking of milk in face of depressed production, is one of the causes of the boost in the price of milk due to hit Ohio cities before long, according to Columbus milk dealers. With the state dry, milk drinking has increased 10 to 15 percent, they say, while the reduction in production at this time of the year creates a situation out of which higher prices must evolve.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

CREATING CRIMINALS

Prohibitionists in their drive against YOU and your INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS, make it a violation of the Crabbe Prohibition Enforcement Act (Sec. 26) to merely POSSESS a recipe for making home-made beer or wine.

Under Section 70 a first violation of the Crabbe Act can be tried by any justice of the peace and "without a jury." This section gives such justice of the peace "final jurisdiction."

The constitution of the State of Ohio, Art 1, Sec. 5, says: "The right of trial by jury shall be inviolate."

Are the Prohibitionists in their attack on the individual liberties of the citizens of Ohio to be considered above the rights guaranteed by the Constitution of Ohio.

The Crabbe Act, in concluding Section 70, says that the purpose in overruling Ohio's Constitution is "to enlarge the jurisdiction" of Ohio's law officers "in addition to the jurisdiction now given and provided by law in the prosecution of criminal cases."

The Crabbe Act makes prohibition enforcement MORE important than prosecutions for murder, burglary, rape and other felonies.

Setting aside completely the long established rule of law which considers a person innocent until proven guilty, the Crabbe Act throughout assumes a person guilty and makes it necessary for the suspected person to prove himself or herself innocent.

The Crabbe Act, Section 36, defines as a "bootlegger" any one who carries on his person, in his luggage or in his vehicle a bottle of intoxicating liquor, and, Section 32, makes any person a law breaker who "with knowledge or WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE" negligently carries or conveys liquor; no matter how it may be mixed with clothing or other articles. Without intent to commit an offense, without knowledge that you are committing it, you can be arrested and tried without a jury.

The Crabbe Act, Section 7, Paragraph 3, invests the Prohibition Commissioner with the powers of a "Special Legislature." It authorizes him to issue "additional rules and regulations" not inconsistent with the Crabbe Act, and says that "violations of such rules and regulations shall be deemed a violation of the Act."

What do you think, Mr. Voter?

Do you realize what the prohibitionists are trying to do to you?

Labor Protests Against New Car

At a meeting of the Ohio Federation of Labor, which convened at Zanesville Tuesday, one man, safety cars, the type the Ohio Electric Company is asking to install in Lima, were opposed in a resolution offered. The organization heads claim the car is not only unfair to labor, but is a detriment to progress.

Practically every union in Lima has petitioned Council to refuse the request of the street car company, and force the concern to maintain cars upon which two person will be employed.

OHIO THE BATTLE GROUND

ONE MORE DAY OF BIG BONUS VOTES

Contestants Who Expect to Come Under the Wire a Winner Will Get Busy Before Thursday.

The Prizes are Better Than in Any Previous Campaign Ever Conducted By a Lima Paper—Now is the Time to Win.

(BY ARNOLD H. PRINE)

One day is a mighty short time to win a prize. At the end of that time the Big Double Special Offer will be closed. The Largest Special offer that will be given during the contest will come to an end Thursday night, at 7:00 P. M. All the future offers will be smaller than this. If you can get more votes now than at any other time, then naturally NOW is the time to make the hours count. Why delay, if this is your best chance to win big bonus votes? Why not take advantage of this prize winning opportunity and carry away your favorite prize? Some will say "Are the prizes worth working for?" Go to the different business places where the prizes were purchased and examine them yourself and see if you would not be willing to spend a little of your spare time getting your friends to subscribe for The Times, the Newest Newspaper in Lima?

The Willys-Knight Car
The Willys-Knight Touring Car, fully equipped, one of the really dependable automobiles and backed by both the local dealer and the well known factory. The Willys-Knight is a car that has made a phenomenal record during the last few years, and comes out now better and lighter er than ever before, and the contestant who wins this prize, will own the best car that "hits the pike."

The Chevrolet Car
The second prize in the big campaign is a $738 Chevrolet Touring Car. To try to enlarge upon the merits of the Chevrolet, would be like trying to add brightness to the sun. The Chevrolet has a most enviable reputation and is without doubt the strongest little car that can be bought for the money. The Chevrolet goes anywhere and everywhere and at all times. One of the slogans used by another car of merit, could be safely handed to the Chevrolet, and that is: "You Can Do It With A Chevrolet."

The Pianos are both good, the talking machines are without fault, and the furniture, and jewelry speaks for itself. Any of the prizes are worth working hard for, and if you don't win, then a commission will be paid, surely nothing could be more fair than this campaign, and it is the prediction of the writer that at the close of the big campaign, no paper in Northwestern Ohio, will be able to boast of as large a circulation as the Times. Make up your mind to win one of the fine prizes, then make the next few hours count big, get busy and DIG, DIG, DIG

BRYAN SUGGESTS PARTISAN PAPER FOR CONGRESSMEN

Since entering Ohio on his speech making tour last Monday, William Jennings Bryan, who speaks in Van Wert Oct. 27, has made a suggestion that is meeting with much approval among party men and may elicit further endorsement.

The Nebraskan says that instead of using the Congressional Record for all manner of speeches uttered and written by the members of the national body for political purposes, a political bulletin ought to be created, in which the Democratic and Republican sides of all important issues may be set forth for the benefit of the country at large. The proposed bulletin should be concise and to the point, the Nebraskan suggests, making it a sufficient brevity, yet scope, to give the American people a clear idea of what stand the two great political parties take on important questions.

Since the announcement of the Bryan suggestion, Congressman Ben F. Welby of the Fifth district has announced that he will introduce a measure in congress providing for the preparation and publication of such a bulletin, the respective versions of questions up for discussion to be written and edited by those best informed among party leaders.

A NEW STANDARD IN ART

Among the bewildered and, in some cases, indignant spectators gathered at a recent Futurist exhibition of paintings and sculpture in New York City was a young man from Kansas City who was paying a visit to a cousin who is very "strong" for the new movement in art.

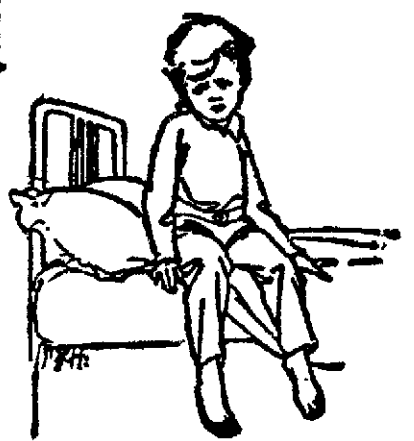

The Kansas City youth remained quiet during the view and the subsequent explanations of the new idea given him by his cousin.

"Well," said the cousin, at last, "you don't seem to be particularly interested or enthusiastic about the pictures. What do you think?"

"Think!" exclaimed the youth from Kansas City. "Why, man I've got two aunts out west that can knit better pictures than these!" —Harpers.

MULLEN WILL HAVE A GOOD REASON FOR BATTLING HARD

It is Well Reported His Bride Will Be Present at the Bout Between Hope and Marty Reese Tonight.

(BY JAMES F. BURBA)

All reports being true, Hope Mullen, Sidney fighter, who tonight meets Marty Reese in a 10 round go at Hawisher Hall under the auspices of the Lima Athletic Club, is going to show his bride who will be the boss around the Mullen ranch, for according to reports, Hope will sail upon the sea of matrimony, late this afternoon, in Muncie, Indiana, and will arrive here with his bride in time for the battle with Reese. Mullen, it is understood, has announced he will be married late this afternoon to Miss Lela Kiger, of Muncie. Whether Hope wants to show Mrs. Mullen just how good a man he is, cannot be stated, as at the time we carry this page to press, we have not had an interview with the battler.

It is quite positive, however, that the presence of Mrs. Mullen will prove a wonderful incentive to Hope, for he will certainly want to show her just how good a battler he is, and as a result Reese will have to step faster than he has ever stepped if he stops the Sidney boy. Mullen has eight consecutive knockouts to his credit since he fought here last. The most recent knockout was scored when he landed the sleep position to Eddie McDonald in Sidney. Hope and Battling Lynn staged good mill in Dayton Monday night.

This Reese boy is a fighter who has won much fame by winning his victories with powerful rights and lefts. When it comes to handling the knockouts, Reese has a little something on the man who invented the jab. Of his last twenty-nine battles, he has ended twenty-six by putting his opponent to sleep. When he connects, the little birdies begin to go flying about the head of the sleeper.

The outcome of this main go is very dubious. While Reese has a record worthy of consideration, so has Mullen. Reese has fought and defeated some awfully good men, and should prove himself a ring general of the highest type. Mullen, on the other hand, is comparatively a youngster, but is heady. If previous battles prove anything, Mullen has a shade the better of Reese, for Reese has three times met and defeated Eddie McDonald, each time being by the knockout route, but the shortest fight lasted four rounds. Mullen in his recent battle with Mc-Donald put the lad to sleep in shorter time.

It is quite probable that Reese has never met the man that can stand the punishment Mullen can. This boy is a fiend for taking hard blows. We have seen him drop his defense, and allow his opponent to hit him at will. Each time Mullen was slapped, he would register that little grin of his and come back for more. Now, it remains to be seen whether or not he takes the punches Reese has to offer, and still come up smiling.

A fighter will enter the ring tonight fully determined to vanquish his foe as rapidly as possible, for he realized that his future as a fighter depends wholly upon the exhibition he stages this evening. That battler is Young Don Baxter, who will meet Billy Bruce in an eight round season mill. Every fan in the city is pulling for this youngster to down Bruce. Baxter, last Labor Day, met and held his own against Bruno Suto a fighter of the old school. As a result of this local fans want to see Baxter get somewhere in the fight world.

One Round Boyer will meet Battling Seerlock in a six round preliminary. Both these lads have good reputations, and it is very probable they will hold up their end of the night's entertainment.

Tonight's show is the first one given by the Lima Athletic Club to be staged under a roof, and it is anticipated Hawisher Hall will be crowded to its utmost capacity. There will be a number of fans here from Sidney to watch and pull for Mullen, who is the idol of fans in that city.

KIWANIS CONVENTION

COLUMBUS, O.—Delegates from the 16 state organizations of the Kiwanis Club will meet here in the first annual state convention of that organization October 15th. International Secretary O. Samuel Cummings, of Chicago, will be the principal speaker at the opening session.

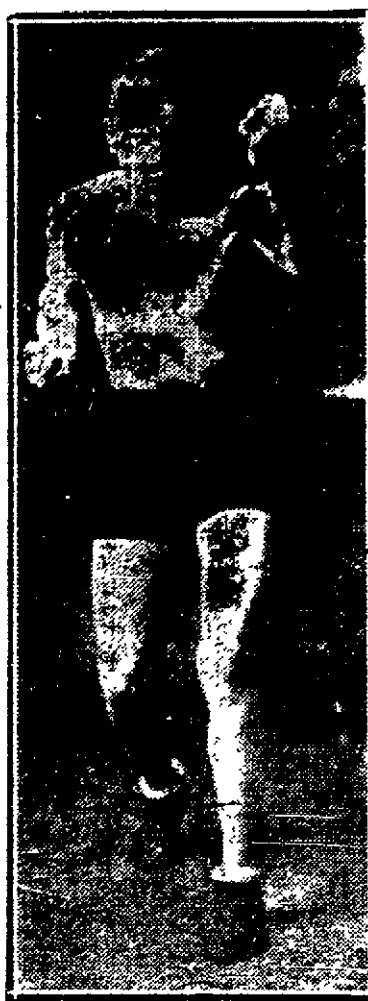

Two hundred and fifty out-of-town delegates and visitors are expected. Mayor Karp of Columbus will welcome the convention. He will be followed by Edmund F. Arnes, also governor of the Kiwanis Clubs of Ohio. R. D. Birch, Cleveland, is governor of the state organization.

WILL FURNISH EXCITEMENT IN THE MAIN MILL OF L. A. C. FISTIC SHOW THIS EVENING

MARTY REESE

These two lads will stage the 10 round main go at the Lima Athletic Club show at Hawisher Hall this evening. Both lads have been going at a fast clip, and are expected to furnish many thrills in the bout. Reese comes here from Franklin, while Mullen is the idol of Sidney fans.

Garry Explains Nine Game Series

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—Chairman Herrmann, of the national commission has issued a statement intended to show that the extension of the recent world series from seven to nine games was not entirely "commercial." It was agreed beforehand that if the series went beyond seven games the two clubs instead of splitting the eighth game receipts fifty-fifty with the two leagues, would take 25 per cent, giving the leagues 75 per cent.

The Cincinnati club got only $10,292.26 out of the eighth game, the Chicago club a similar sum, the National league $30,897.08, and the American league an equal amount.

MAKES BEST TIME AT ATLANTA MEET

McGregor, The Great, Travels Best Over Oval Winning Second Heat of 2:14 Trot.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 15.—Yesterday's grand circuit racing at Lake wood track here was signalized by a spectacular battle between Cox and Murphy, piloting respectively McGregor the Great and Marigdale, for a purse of $2,000 in the 2:14 class trotting event, the main one on the card. The honors went to Cox in straight heats.

Geers started his Mamie Locke in this race, but his protegee broke so badly near the half mile post in the first heat that she was distanced. Marigdale made the Cox horse fight for every inch of ground. The best time of the meeting so far was made in the second heat, when McGregor clipped off the mile in 2:06 1/4.

Louis Gratton, driven by B. Fleming won the 2:03 pace in three straight heats from a field of four starters, second money going to Battle Blacklock, piloted by Walker.

The other event today was a 2:18 class trot in which only southern horses started, and was won by Harry S., an Atlanta owned chestnut horse, driven by Bartley.

RUMOR PERSISTS THAT HARLEY MAY RESIGN

GOSSIP SAYS THAT DOUGHTY COLONEL WILL NOT REMAIN

In Contest and That Mayor Simpson Will Be Named, Instead.

MUCH DISSENSION

In Republican Ranks and Outlook for Harley is Discouraging.

Rumor persists that Colonel John A. Harley, republican candidate for Mayor of Lima, will hand in his resignation and refuse to remain in the race.

The same gossip, which is so persistent as to have become almost the regular thing among those who talk politics and follow its drift, has it that the immortal four, protectors of the inner sanctum of the noted republican gang, will name present Mayor Simpson as their only bet, with the Colonel out of it.

That Colonel Harley has been irreparably damaged by the quiet announcement that is going around that he will retain both Colonel Gale and Al Metheany in their offices, if elected, goes without the saying.

On every hand republicans have been heard to express their regret that Harley had to have Gale and Metheany hanging to the tail of his kite. They know it means dragging him down. Harley is said to have agreed once to give the pair the frozen mitt, but later changed his mind.

Burkhardt the Winner
Followers of political fortunes have noticed a rapidly growing sentiment for Burkhardt among all classes of people. Not in years has a candidate for public office in Lima made such an above-board, vigorous campaign for a high office. He has met voters on the level and they appreciate it.

Mayor In Again
Dama rumor, that has been so very busy lately, persists in saying that Mayor Bailiss Simpson, who is said to be quite a bit sore under the collar because he was turned down for another term by the gang, will be put upon the ticket for his present office if Colonel Harley does hand in his resignation.

Friends who have asked the Colonel about such talk say that he denies it emphatically, but the story holds up repeatedly and from sources that are "usually in the know."

AVERS HUSBAND HAS MARRIED TWICE

Alleging that he refused to provide the comforts of a home for her and that he has married another woman, Kathleen E. Young filed a petition in common pleas court Wednesday asking for a divorce from Charles R. Young.

The plaintiff charges since their marriage, November 16, 1914 she has never been provided with the necessary comforts of a home by the defendant, and that he was in the habit of cutting, striking, beating and otherwise abusing her.

He left her in June, 1916, the plaintiff says and joined Co. M. of the 2nd Infantry Ohio National Guard and was later drafted into the federal service. When he arrived at Camp Meade, N. J., she alleges he deserted the army and was arrested by army officers later at Adrian, Michigan. It was here, the plaintiff alleges Young was married to Miss Vera Talmage.

Church Bazaar Opens Tonight

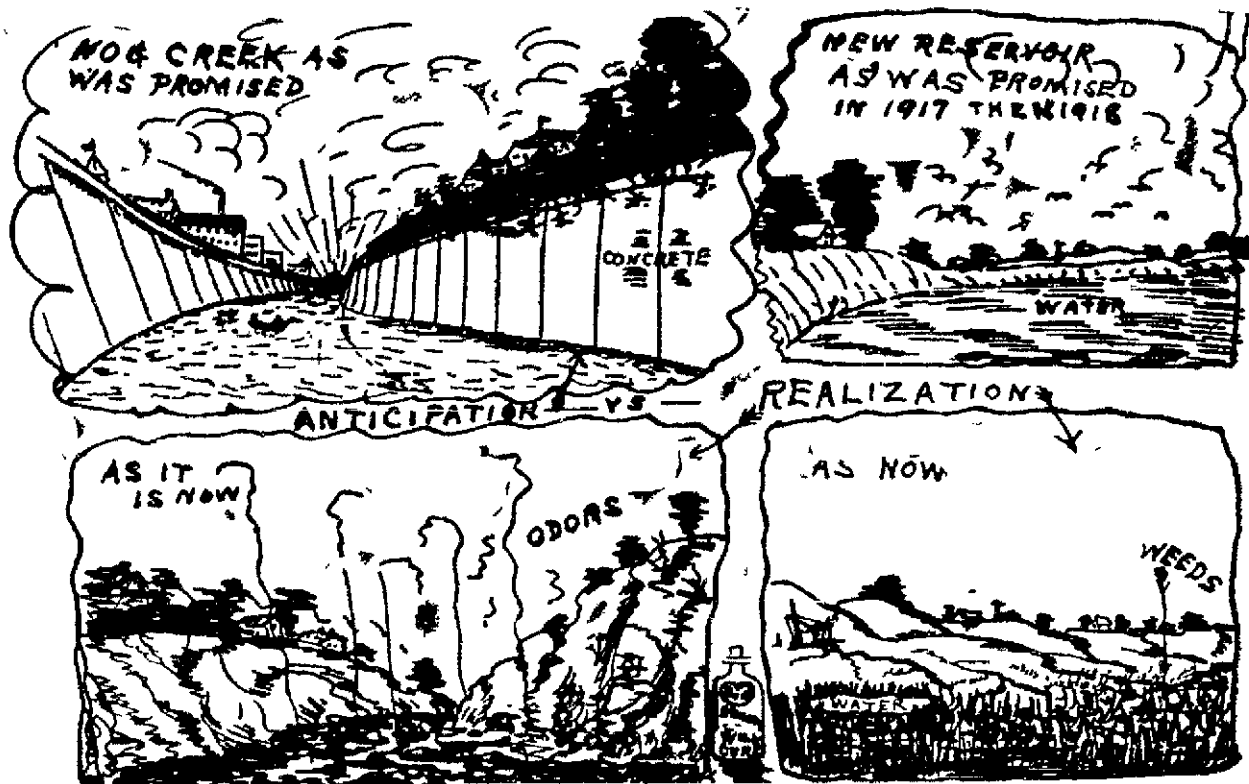

Tonight will mark the opening of the first grand bazaar to be held by members of St. Gerard's parish, Main street and Robb avenue. The auditorium of the church where the bazaar will be held has been elaborately decorated for the occasion. It will be held each evening the remainder of this week.

SEES BIG PLANT.

F. A. Hitchcock has just returned from a two days business trip to Warren, Ohio, where he visited the new plant of the D. & M. Cord Tire Co. The plant is being constructed on a site of sixty-five acres, which was donated by the city of Warren, and the first unit is under way, comprising a building 120x210 feet in dimensions.

ENUMERATORS ARE NEEDED TO ASSIST IN TAKING CENSUS

Positions Will Be Open The First of The Coming Year.

INCREASE IN SALARY

About 220 Enumerators Will Be Needed in This District.

Public spirited and energetic citizens of Lima and Allen County are greatly needed as enumerators to assist in taking the next census which will begin about January 2, 1920, and which will take a matter of two or three weeks, according to information received here Wednesday morning. It is very probable it is understood, however, that it will take a little longer to take the census of the rural districts than it will in cities.

In past years enumerators were paid an average of about $70 for their services. This time, however, the salary has been increased, and the doing the work will receive not less than $100, it is understood. It is the opinion of government workers that little trouble will be experienced in securing capable men in Allen county to take the census.

Work Not Hard
The work, it is understood is not hard but the enumerator must be accurate in his notations, and must have ability to meet householders in a straightforward manner. As a test of their fitness for the work all applicants will be required to fill out a sample schedule and will be duly notified of the time and place of his test. It is very probable the tests will be held in Lima in the very near future.

220 To Work Here
Hon. Samuel L. Rogers, it will take Hon. Samuel L. Rogers, it will take an army of 80,000 enumerators to secure information for the compilation of the census. About 220 enumerators will be needed in this district.

Active, intelligent, and reliable men and women, not less than 18 years of age are needed for this task. Said Director Rogers and in a sense this is a call for volunteers. The importance of a complete and reliable census, especially in these critical times when more than ever before perhaps we need complete data regarding population conditions, tendencies, and resources, can hardly be overemphasized. The reorganization of the social and economic structure and the readjustment of international relations necessitated by the War must be based on accurate knowledge if we are to act wisely and deal justly with all classes and all interests.

It is hoped, therefore, that public spirited energetic people throughout the country will volunteer to act as census enumerators even though they may not care for the positions so far as the pay is concerned. I should be sorry to think, and I do not believe, that all our patriotism was used up by the War and none left over for public service in times of peace.

A Stoltz has been appointed supervisor of the census for the Third District which is composed of

NEW COAST FACTORY FOR CIGAR COMPANY

Trip West of General Manager Wemmer Indicates Pacific Branch.

Establishment of a large new factory on the Pacific coast is foretold by the departure of Mr. Henry G. Wemmer, general manager of the Deisel-Wemmer company, for the coast Wednesday.

The Deisel-Wemmer company has long had an enormous business in the western part of the country and it has grown constantly. How to take care of this business has been a matter of much concern to the big cigar manufacturing firm, and the steps for a western factory are the final result.

The Deisel-Wemmer company now maintains 15 large factories in Lima and over the surrounding territory, yet the orders for the brands turned out in these huge plants are never "up even."

BOY IS AWARDED $150 DAMAGES

Wilbur Fritz was awarded a judgment for $150 in a suit for damages against the L. S. Gardner Co. in common pleas court Tuesday. Fritz, who is nine years old, was crossing east Kibby street near Union when he was struck by a truck belonging to the defendants and received cuts about the head, and other injuries, it is claimed, for which damage of $175 was asked. The accident occurred September 2.

LIMA SALOONISTS MUST PAY TAXES

Several Lima saloonkeepers have been called upon by revenue officers to pay federal revenue taxes for liquor sold since the expiration of their last receipts, and it is probable that a few more will also be called on for the same purpose. Already a goodly sized amount has been collected by revenue agents who have been here from Cleveland and Toledo to look into the matter of illicit liquor sales. No arrests will be made, and there will be no prosecution by the agents, if saloonkeepers meet the necessary demands.

Lift off Corns!
Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet. A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

MANY VIEW LIMA FROM CLOUDS AND PRAISE OLD TOWN

Aviators Do Stunts When Passengers "Want Everything There Is."

TO REMAIN LONGER

Will Give More People Opportunity to Take Trip Through Sky.

Many Lima people have enjoyed a trip into the clouds the last two days since the arrival here of Lieut. R. S. Haines and Ensign S. V. Jordan in the Curtiss plane.

Despite the cloudy weather Tuesday aerial conditions were almost ideal and many Lima folks looked over the old town from above.

A number of them expressed a desire "for everything there is" and they got it. Lieut. Haines, pilot of the machine, was instructor in aerial acrobatics during the war and trained many of the aviators who became famous on the western front. To "get by" they had to know every trick in the aviator's deck of cards and then some—and Haines had to teach them.

Loop is Easy
Several of the passengers Tuesday "looped the loop" and instead of being frightened say they enjoyed it.

One feature of Haines' work is far and above any of the kind ever done here—his manner of alighting is as gentle as could be possible. His machine barely touches the ground and there is an entire absence of the jolting so often suffered by passengers. This part of his work has been very noticeable to the sight-seers who gather at the Breese farm west of town to watch the flights.

Haines has done some very clever acrobatic work right over the field and not visible from the city.

Passenger List
Among Tuesday's passengers were T. P. Riddle, P. A. Kahle, Miss Rowena Kahle and Mrs. Fred Kroeber, of Baltimore, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Kahle; Miss Emma Ruppright, J. R. Lynch; Francis O'Connor, and several others.

Remain Longer
Instead of leaving Thursday as planned Lieut. Haines and Ensign Jordan expect to remain the balance of the week, as they have a large number of bookings and expect to make many more. To "go up" all that is necessary is to visit the Breese field and make arrangements there.

TALKS TO WOMEN
Miss Ida M. Nickel, rural nurse will talk to the women of the Ladies Aid Society of the Second Baptist church Thursday afternoon, at the home of E. D. Lewis, 700 North Cole street.

REBATES NECESSARY IN ARMY FOOD SALE

A shortage has developed in certain of the commodities offered in the sale of army food stuffs sold through the Lima postoffice, during August, and it is probable that a check sufficiently large enough to cover the rebate of those customers whose orders cannot be filled, will be received here. This action is being taken in many other cities by the government, and it will in all probability be done in Lima also, although no word to that effect has been received by Postmaster Sullivan.

Lima has been without any surplus orders on hand for some time, and information has not been received as to what articles can be supplied.

GRIDIRON CLUB IS REORGANIZED

Re-organization of the Gridiron Club, well known as one of the most popular organizations of the younger men in the city, was effected Tuesday.

The Gridiron Club is composed of younger members of the Rotary Club and a dinner is held every two weeks, at which each member is required to speak on a subject of local or national importance.

No one is allowed to get "cold feet" and many members have developed into worth-while public speakers.

The next meeting will be held the first dinner of the fall season, next Wednesday evening at the Elks Club. John R. Carnes is the newly elected president of the Gridiron Club and Martin Nellis, secretary.
